

NOTICE TO THE CREDITORS OF THE
LATE REPUBLIC OF TEXAS.

Austin, Texas, February 22d, 1854.

The Creditors of the late Republic of Texas are hereby notified, that by an act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, approved February 11th, 1854, the provisions of the act entitled "An Act to provide for ascertaining the debt of the late Republic of Texas," approved March 20th, 1848, has been extended until the 1st day of August, 1855; therefore all holders of any of the liabilities of the late Republic, which have not been heretofore adjudicated, whether the same be stock bonds, treasury notes, audited paper, unliquidated claims, or any other description of debt whatsoever, will present the same for adjustment to the Auditor and Comptroller at their office in Austin, on or before the date aforesaid (August 1st, 1855,) or the same are, by the Statute aforesaid, declaimed forever barred.

Parties forwarding claims by mail to the undersigned, under the provisions of the act aforesaid, the Certificate of adjustment issued therefor, will be returned in the same way; should it be so directed by the claimant, otherwise it will remain in the Auditor's Office, subject to his order. In all cases of the transmission of securities to and from the office, the same shall be at the risk of the owner or holder.

When a party deposes another to act for him, (which is requisite in second class claims,) a simple power of attorney, attested by two witnesses, will suffice.

Jno. M. Swisher, Auditor,
James B. Shaw, Comptroller.
